

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1885.

BOSSER & McCARTHY,
Publishers and Proprietors,
To WHOM ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS

Don't let your angry passions rise
Because your neighbors advertise,
And draw all the dimes,
But go and do the same;
Pursue the course they have begun,
And drive away dull times.

Five degrees below zero this morning.

The Springer arrived at New Orleans on Tuesday.

The 22nd instant, Washington's birthday, is a legal holiday.

Hemp in the interior of the State is on a boom. It is worth $6.25 and is scarce at that.

For stock bills printed in the best style at the lowest prices, call and interview the BULLETIN.

MRS. W. O. SAUNDERS & SON, stove dealers, of Carlisle, have made an arrangement for the benefit of their creditors.

To go along with the spring boom it is absolutely necessary to advertise. Suppose you try the BULLETIN as a medium.

The re-union of the veterans of the Mexican Association will take place at Flemingsburg on Tuesday, the 24th inst.

Dr. H. P. WALKER will begin a protracted meeting at the Southern Methodist Church in Sardis next Monday evening. All are invited.

JUSTICE BRADLEY has expressed a desire to retire from the U. S. Supreme bench, in order that a vacancy may be created before the expiration of President Arthur's term.

NEW MOORES, formerly of this city, who removed some time ago to Caldwell, Kansas, and engaged in the retail liquor business, was fined $1,600 the other day for violation of the prohibition statute in force in that State.

Messrs. HICCHINGER & CO., have this week cut the prices of clothing with a merciless hand. Many articles are offered at less than half of the original cost. The stock is very large and you cannot fail to be suited with anything you wish.

Mr. Yeoman, referring to the approaching execution of William Neal says: It is not at all likely that Governor Knott will interfere to prevent the execution, and the best thing Neal can do will be to make a clean breast of it, and at least go out of life with the truth upon his lips.

JUDGE JOSEPH FANNING, County Judge of Elliott County, was killed by a train on the 17th instant, near Lyon Station, in Carter County. He was crossing the bridge which spans the Little Sandy river and had gotten one-third of the way over when the train came upon him. He was killed instantly.

THE AMAZON Fire Company with a view of raising money to buy a bell for their new hall, will give a dance and bazaar on the 23rd, 24th, and 25th inst. It is to be hoped that the attendance will be large and the company realize their expectations. The admission is fifteen cents. Ladies will be admitted free.

A LETTER received by the BULLETIN from Mr. James Wirthlin, clerk of the steamer Big Sandy, announces the safe arrival of the boat at New Orleans in time to witness the Mardi Gras festivities after a very pleasant voyage down the river. A bill of fare enclosed gives an idea of the good things enjoyed by the passengers during the trip.

MISS MAMIE AND TILLIE CHEESMAN, daughters of Mr. J. W. Cheesman of Aberdeen, were severely burned last night by the accidental upsetting of a coal oil lamp. They were sewing at the time the accident happened. The young ladies were burned about the face and arms, their clothing being almost destroyed. The injuries are very painful.

THE Bourbon News says: We would suggest that the managers of our skating rinks get up something new and difficult, such as having skaters roll barrels of salt, saw wood, climb a step ladder and eat pie, glide around the room three times at a 240 gait and suddenly stop in front of an editor and pay their subscription. What we want is to see something real hard to do.

The Trouble Safely Over.

Stomach trouble is serious business while it lasts; but what a blessed relief to have it depart! Mrs. F. G. Wells, of 18 Atlantic street, Hartford, Conn., writes that she tried Brown's Iron Bitters for stomach trouble, and that she experienced such relief that the trouble is now entirely over. She recommends this great iron medicine to all who are afflicted. It cures liver and kidney complaint.

The Maysville Musical Club.

The following is from the Carlisle Mercury:

The above named club favored the people of Carlisle with a most happy rendition of the opera of "Pirates of Penzance" at their opera house last Thursday night, and while the audience was not large, as is often the case, the attendance was complimentary to the club, taking the bad weather and other circumstances into consideration. The Musical Club is composed of the best people of Maysville, and their talents are well known up and down the city. Many of them who have been instrumental in bringing them up to so high a musical standard. While we can not be expected to particularise the merits of the splendid chorus, we can not refrain from speaking in terms of high commendation of Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Mabel, Mr. R. A. McElroy, Mr. King, Mr. E. B. Blaine's Frederic, Mr. George Thomas' Major General, Mr. H. F. Thomas' Lieutenant and Mr. J. C. Threlkeld's funny character of Sergeant. Mrs. Lee displayed a musical talent that is not to be denied. Mr. Blaine's singing is well known, and his acting was equal to her sweet song notes. Mr. George Thomas was a perfect Major General, and the rapidity with which he rattled off his qualifications for the position, could not be exceeded by any, or equaled by any. He showed a great deal of energy and spirit, and maintained his reputation as a tactful Mr. Threlkeld with his magnificent black eye, his brave policemen in true style, Mr. Ruth, the director of the club, engineered the club through the difficult parts in high managerial style, and his wife, Mrs. Ruth, did a great deal for the entertainment as a whole, it was a treat to those who had taken the pains to acquaint themselves with the intricacies of the music, and we only regret that it did not meet with a more hearty patronage, though we understand that the attendance was well pleased with the audience, and the young people with their trip to Carlisle.

EVERYONE who can do so, should take the "Solid Train" of the Chesapeake and Ohio in going on to the inauguration. It is the Fast Express, and the entire train, with Pullman Palace Sleeping Cars, runs from Louisville, Lexington, Ky., and Cincinnati, and prominent cities in Kentucky, West Virginia and Virginia, through to Washington without change, and lands its passengers almost under the shadow of the great dome of the Capitol. The Chesapeake and Ohio anticipate a large crowd for the inauguration, and have made ample arrangements for taking care of every one who uses this line. Not the smallest of the many attractions offered by the Chesapeake and Ohio is the low rate which has been arranged for the round trip. Any agent will furnish full information in regard to the rates and limits of tickets. Call on W. C. Saller, at the depot for information.

DANIEL BOONE died in Missouri September 26, 1820, aged eighty-five years, having been born in Fincus County, Penna., 1735.

Friend Craddock's memory is slightly at fault. The above date of Boone's birth although it has received the sanction of the State Historical Society, is not the correct one. A few days since W. D. Hixson, of the Mason County Historical Society, visited the residence of the widow of Daniel Boone, a grandson of the pioneer, to examine the family Bible and found the date to be October 22, 1734. This Bible was given by the old pioneer to his son Daniel Morgan Boone, and by him to his son Daniel, who died a few years since, and will pass to his son Daniel.

START FOR THE SOUDAN

THE DUKE OF CAMBRIDGE REVIEWS
THE ENGLISH GUARDS.

A French Victory on the Ning Po River—
Cyrus W. Field and the Cable Company—Mrs. Lowell Passing Away—
Without Pain—General Notes.

LOWMEYER, Feb. 19.—The Duke of Cambridge, commander-in-chief, accompanied by the princess of Wales and daughter, inspected the guards previous to their departure for Suez. The weather was fair and the day perfect. The review was a grand affair, and the reviewing stand they were loudly cheered, both for fine soldierly bearing and precision of action. After the review they were drawn up before the grand stand, and the Duke of Cambridge in a short speech said: "The cardinal virtue in a good soldier is he helped them would readily submit to all rules and restrictions placed upon them. Continuing the Duke said: "Remember your discipline. Good duty. Your gallantry is unimpaired. Good duty." During the address the Duke was repeatedly interrupted by applause. At the close of his remarks the band played the national hymn and the crowd cheered them selves hoarse.

A French Victory.

PARIS, Feb. 19.—A fleet from Admiral Garibaldi's squadron has attacked the Chinese coast and put in a complete victory. The French fleet sank two war ships, which took refuge in the Ning Po river. The casualties on the French vessels were slight, the vessels themselves show hardly any trace of the engagement.

Takes Field's Part.

LONDON, Feb. 19.—The Financial News contains a strong protest against Larcom's statement in Truth respecting Cyrus W. Field and the Anglo-American Cable Company, and expressing regret that the article from Truth should have been copied in the Financial News.

Safe in Port.

GLASGOW, Feb. 19.—The steamer S.S. of Georgia, of the state line, has arrived. It left New York on the 5th inst. Being a few days over due slight uneasiness had begun to be felt.

earing the End.

LONDON, Feb. 19.—Mrs. Lowell is sinking slowly, and there is no sign of recovery. She is suffering to pain whatever.

Foreign Notes.

The revised version of the Old Testament will be published in London next Easter.

He has robbed the residence of the plenipotentiary, Clara Schumann, of all her jewelry and other valuable.

The London Daily News positively denies that Hassan Bey, brother of the Khedive, has been appointed governor general of the Soudan.

Siegfried, Martos and Dominguez, leaders of Spanish liberal sections, arranged a fusillade with a common policy to attack Canovas's ministry.

At Dublin the lord mayor, corporation council, lord high chancellor, Justice O'Brien and several members of parliament attended Cardinal McCabe's funeral. Shops along the route of the procession were closed.

"WINDY WEED."

Wanted Bait in Chicago for the Embassies element of $100,000.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Feb. 19.—Detectives have been scouring this city for Charles T. Weed, who is wanted in Chicago for the $100,000, which is said to be $100,000 ahead. He was head clerk for Milman, Rodman & Co. of that city. Charley Weed was well known in this city, where he worked for some time as bookkeeper for the Culver Commission Co. He left St. Louis a week or two ago to accept the position with Milman, Rodman & Co. While here he had the reputation of being rather rapid, but no doubts were ever cast upon his honesty, and his accounts were always in order with the Culver Company when he left them.

He was a great talker, and known generally as "Windy Weed." He was married twice, marrying the sister of J. M. Ball, a well known Chicago lawyer, and the second wife obtained a divorce from him for sheer dementia. When Weed first came to St. Louis he entered into the grain brokerage business with a party named Terrell, but this firm was soon dissolved. He then lived with the defaulter's resort—Canada.

DESERCETING THE DEAD.

Six Corpses Exhumed, Mangled and Left Lying on the Ground.

POINT PLEASANT, W. Va., Feb. 19.—Salt creek, a small stream, empties into the Ohio three miles south of this place. Ohio and Kentucky are separated by a church called "sheep" attached to which is a rural burying ground. The sexton went to dig a grave and was horrified to find a half dozen graves open and the corpses taken from the coffins and stretched on the ground.

In one of the graves the limbs were severed from the bodies. The graves had been opened without regard to family. The bodies lay in one place arranged in the shape of a Greek cross. There is no clue and no reason is assigned. The bodies have evidently been exposed for a day or two.

A Case of Leprosy.

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 19.—A genuine case of leprosy has been discovered in the county jail. The patient is Ah Hing, Chinese prisoner, who is held on a charge of assault to commit murder. The authorities of the state penitentiary refused to receive him and threw him back on the county authorities. The patient presents a loathsome appearance. He is now isolated from a human habitation.

Dynamite Damage.

WHATLOW, W. Va., Feb. 19.—The new residence of John H. Steiner, president of the Washington colony, was blown to atoms by dynamite. Loss $5,000. No lives were lost. The explosion is supposed to be the outcome of land troubles which have been brewing for two years.

BULLETIN.

THE DAILY BULLETIN will contain each day a record of the movements of the great political parties, paying particular attention to political matters in the County and State. It will also contain a column of news from the South. A SUMMARY will strive to keep its readers posted on all matters of general interest, giving the news in a condensed form, but the more important matters will be treated at length. As a matter of interest, it is announced, having in this and adjacent counties a corps of active and intelligent correspondents, who promptly furnish an accurate account of all occurrences of interest in their respective localities. The MURKET REPORTS, which are furnished expressly for the BULLETIN, will give the latest information, that may be looked upon as reliable.
